

Humanitarian Assistance Mentor and Teacher

Teach and provide Humanitarian Assistance to children and orphans in a school in Colombia, South America

Location: Tolima, Colombia, South America

Organization: High Cloud Foundation

Start date:

Sex: All are welcome

Skill(s): clerical, tutoring, Writing

Area of Focus: Children and Youth, Community Building and Renewal, Disaster Relief , International Cooperation, Poverty and Hunger, Social Enterprise and Economic Development

End date:

Age: All ages above 18 years old

Language(s): English, Spanish

Last updated:

Description:

The High Cloud Foundation, a 501c3 Non Profit/Non Governmental Organization, provides humanitarian assistance to schools and orphanages in Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, the Middle East, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, Tunisia, and India.

High Cloud conducts educational sessions with children, orphans and communities who live in extreme poverty and who suffer from conflicts or natural disasters.

These Humanitarian Missions focus on four major components:

- Cloud of Knowledge provides instruction in English, math and science
- Cloud of Nutrition encourages children to use their limited resources to make healthier eating choices
- Cloud of Environment teaches conservation, basic sanitation, and recycling methods
- Cloud of Sports emphasizes the benefits of an active lifestyle by encouraging development of natural athletic abilities

As a High Cloud Member, you will be given the opportunity to interact with global leaders and international organizations on a daily basis while providing support to the children and orphans High Cloud supports.

Responsibilities:

- Teach humanitarian workshops with the children and orphans at the school
- Recognize and develop future children's' educational programs, relying on your individual creativity and personal responsibility to develop proposals and see ideas through to fruition
- Be an advocate for High Cloud projects and donor nations as well as provide support to High Cloud by using your creativity and social entrepreneurship to expand Humanitarian Programs, Missions and benefactors among other activities for the Foundation

Opportunities:

- Gain global experience while supporting an International Non-Governmental Organization

- Network with world leaders in eight different countries as well as High Clouders who currently serve as Executives of International Consulting Firms and Global Institutions such as the World Bank
- Become a Mentor and Role Model-for life for hundreds of children
- Experience local culture and travel to unique locations

Applicant Requisites:

- Strong written English skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Interest in the work of an NGO
- Commitment to the mission of helping to empower children and orphans to rise above their challenges
- Proficiency in basic computer programs
- A commitment to an interfaith, interracial, international, and intergenerational approach to humanitarian aid

This internship requires the interns to pay all their own personal expenses, travel expenses, and program fees, which are:

- * $55. application fee (non-refundable)
- * $250. administrative fee
- * $150. RT airport transport
- * You must also pay your own R/T airfare
- * You will stay with a local family for a small weekly fee and be provided with three meals a day

The beginning and end dates for this program are flexible

High Cloud is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit that has the mission to help alleviate world poverty for the vulnerable among us - children and displaced mothers who are victims of violence, poverty or natural disasters throughout the world. We provide humanitarian assistance and support to orphanages, foundations and rural schools through educational programs, sports and additional extracurricular activities. High Cloud also provides the basic elements of life such as clothing, food, school supplies as well as financial support.

In addition to physical human needs, High Cloud is also dedicated to providing displaced children and families with a sense of belonging, self-esteem, empowerment and opportunity. High Cloud has ongoing humanitarian activities in: Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Peru, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, The Middle East, among others and will be expanding to Tunisia and India next year. The opportunity to conduct philanthropic activities and work on projects with different cultures is simply priceless and is the most rewarding experience (<http://www.highcloud.org/>, <http://highcloudfoundation.blogspot.com/>).

The Interns will gain valuable knowledge on international affairs, global business with large corporations, as well as superb networking opportunities with our High Cloud members who include Executives of International Consulting Firms and Diplomats.

Contact High Cloud's Recruiting Coordinator, Liz Carosella at liz.carosella@highcloud.org

Humanitarian Assistance Mentor and Teacher

Teach and provide Humanitarian Assistance to children and orphans in a school and orphanage in Brazil, South America

Location: Tolima, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, South America

Organization: High Cloud Foundation

Start date:

Sex: All are welcome

Skill(s): clerical, tutoring, Writing

Area of Focus: Children and Youth, Community Building and Renewal, Disaster Relief , International Cooperation, Poverty and Hunger, Social Enterprise and Economic Development

End date:

Age: All ages above 18 years old

Language(s): English, Spanish, Portuguese (if possible)

Last updated:

Description:

The High Cloud Foundation, a 501c3 Non Profit/Non Governmental Organization, provides humanitarian assistance to schools and orphanages in Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, the Middle East, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, Tunisia, and India.

High Cloud conducts educational sessions with children, orphans and communities who live in extreme poverty and who suffer from conflicts or natural disasters.

These Humanitarian Missions focus on four major components:

- Cloud of Knowledge provides instruction in English, math and science
- Cloud of Nutrition encourages children to use their limited resources to make healthier eating choices
- Cloud of Environment teaches conservation, basic sanitation, and recycling methods
- Cloud of Sports emphasizes the benefits of an active lifestyle by encouraging development of natural athletic abilities

As a High Cloud Member, you will be given the opportunity to interact with global leaders and international organizations on a daily basis while providing support to the children and orphans High Cloud supports.

Responsibilities:

- Teach humanitarian workshops with the children and orphans at the school
- Recognize and develop future children's' educational programs, relying on your individual creativity and personal responsibility to develop proposals and see ideas through to fruition
- Be an advocate for High Cloud projects and donor nations as well as provide support to High Cloud by using your creativity and social entrepreneurship to expand Humanitarian Programs, Missions and benefactors among other activities for the Foundation

Opportunities:

- Gain global experience while supporting an International Non-Governmental Organization

- Network with world leaders in eight different countries as well as High Clouders who currently serve as Executives of International Consulting Firms and Global Institutions such as the World Bank
- Become a Mentor and Role Model-for life for hundreds of children
- Experience local culture and travel to unique locations

Applicant Requisites:

- Strong written English skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Interest in the work of an NGO
- Commitment to the mission of helping to empower children and orphans to rise above their challenges
- Proficiency in basic computer programs
- A commitment to an interfaith, interracial, international, and intergenerational approach to humanitarian aid

This internship requires the interns to pay all their own personal expenses, travel expenses, and program fees, which are:

- * $55. application fee (non-refundable)
- * $250. administrative fee
- * $150. RT airport transport
- * You must also pay your own R/T airfare
- * You will stay with a local family for a small weekly fee and be provided with three meals a day

The beginning and end dates for this program are flexible.

High Cloud is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit that has the mission to help alleviate world poverty for the vulnerable among us - children and displaced mothers who are victims of violence, poverty or natural disasters throughout the world. We provide humanitarian assistance and support to orphanages, foundations and rural schools through educational programs, sports and additional extracurricular activities. High Cloud also provides the basic elements of life such as clothing, food, school supplies as well as financial support.

In addition to physical human needs, High Cloud is also dedicated to providing displaced children and families with a sense of belonging, self-esteem, empowerment and opportunity. High Cloud has ongoing humanitarian activities in: Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Peru, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, The Middle East, among others and will be expanding to Tunisia and India next year. The opportunity to conduct philanthropic activities and work on projects with different cultures is simply priceless and is the most rewarding experience (<http://www.highcloud.org/>, <http://highcloudfoundation.blogspot.com/>).

The Interns will gain valuable knowledge on international affairs, global business with large corporations, as well as superb networking opportunities with our High Cloud members who include our High Cloud members who include Executives of International Consulting Firms and Diplomats.

Contact High Cloud's Recruiting Coordinator, Liz Carosella at liz.carosella@highcloud.org

International Project Coordinator

Serve as an International Project Coordinator for Global High Cloud Humanitarian Missions

Location: Global

Organization: High Cloud Foundation

Start date:

Sex: All are welcome

Skill(s): creativity, self-starter, clerical, tutoring, Writing

Area of Focus: Children and Youth, Community Building and Renewal, Disaster Relief, International Cooperation, Poverty and Hunger, Social Enterprise and Economic Development

End date:

Age: All ages above 18 years old

Language(s): English, Spanish

Last updated:

Description:

The High Cloud Foundation, a 501c3 Non Profit/Non Governmental Organization, provides humanitarian assistance to schools and orphanages in Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, the Middle East, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, Tunisia, and India.

High Cloud conducts educational sessions with children, orphans and communities who live in extreme poverty and who suffer from conflicts or natural disasters.

These Humanitarian Missions focus on four major components:

- Cloud of Knowledge provides instruction in English, math and science
- Cloud of Nutrition encourages children to use their limited resources to make healthier eating choices
- Cloud of Environment teaches conservation, basic sanitation, and recycling methods
- Cloud of Sports emphasizes the benefits of an active lifestyle by encouraging development of natural athletic abilities

As a High Cloud Member, you will be given the opportunity to interact with global leaders and international organizations on a daily basis while providing support to the children and orphans High Cloud supports.

Responsibilities:

- Write letters for grants and donations from US corporations.
- Identify shipping companies, airlines, willing to deliver supplies to children and orphans in eight different countries
- Secure donations from local US corporations

Be an asset to the High Cloud Foundation by learning essential project management tools and techniques

- Answer directly to the Co-Founders/President
- Contribute to the Marketing and Advertisement Strategy of the High Cloud Foundation by:
 - Preparing or editing organizational publications for internal and external audiences, including newsletters and reports.

- Responding to requests for information from the media or country officials.
- Establishing and maintaining cooperative relationships with representatives of community, and public interest groups on an international scale.
- Consulting with advertising agencies or staff to arrange promotional campaigns in all types of media for products, organizations, or individuals.
- Arrange public appearances, lectures, contests, or exhibits for the global community to increase awareness and to promote goodwill.
- Contribute to High Cloud's project monitoring (both national and international) by:
 - Communicating with the Country Directors on behalf of the Co-Founders to ensure smooth operations and dialogue with the field teams.
 - Supporting the Co-Founders in communicating and monitoring the approved project schedules for Fundraising, Special Events, Humanitarian Operations, International travel, among others.
 - Communicating with the Support Team members on behalf of the Co-Founders to ensure smooth operations as well as coordination of activities among all of the groups.
- Support project management and status review meetings
- Identify and suggest corrective actions to improve High Cloud activities and events

Provide additional oversight of the international project teams in order to deliver project objectives successfully
- Support in all planning, organizing and coordination of Fundraising Events, Group Events, among others
- Attend the majority of the Foundations meetings (always conducted by teleconference and/or Skype/Yahoo Messenger)
- Support other special initiatives as decided upon by the Co-Founders/Presidents
- Recognize and develop future children's' educational programs, relying on your individual creativity and personal responsibility to develop proposals and see ideas through to fruition
- Be an advocate for High Cloud projects and donor nations as well as provide support to High Cloud by using your creativity and social entrepreneurship to expand Humanitarian Programs, Missions and benefactors among other activities for the Foundation

Opportunities:

- This job can be done from home, using a computer. It will be excellent for anyone wishing to get experience writing grant and appeal letters, doing research and representing a 501(c)(3) NGO.
- Gain global experience while supporting an International Non-Governmental Organization
- Network with world leaders in eight different countries as well as High Clouders who currently serve as Executives of International Consulting Firms and Global Institutions such as the World Bank
- Become a Mentor and Role Model-for life for hundreds of children
- Experience local culture and travel to unique locations

Applicant Requisites:

- Strong written English skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Interest in the work of an NGO
- Commitment to the mission of helping to empower children and orphans to rise above their challenges
- Proficiency in basic computer programs
- A commitment to an interfaith, interracial, international, and intergenerational approach to humanitarian aid

High Cloud is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit that has the mission to help alleviate world poverty for the vulnerable among us - children and displaced mothers who are victims of violence, poverty or natural disasters throughout the world. We provide humanitarian assistance and support to orphanages, foundations and rural schools through educational programs, sports and additional extracurricular activities. High Cloud also provides the basic elements of life such as clothing, food, school supplies as well as financial support.

In addition to physical human needs, High Cloud is also dedicated to providing displaced children and families with a sense of belonging, self-esteem, empowerment and opportunity. High Cloud has ongoing humanitarian activities in: Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Peru, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, The Middle East, among others and will be expanding to Tunisia and India next year. The opportunity to conduct philanthropic activities and work on projects with different cultures is simply priceless and is the most rewarding experience (<http://www.highcloud.org/>, <http://highcloudfoundation.blogspot.com/>).

The Interns will gain valuable knowledge on international affairs, global business with large corporations, as well as superb networking opportunities with our High Cloud members who include our High Cloud members who include Executives of International Consulting Firms and Diplomats.

Contact High Cloud's Recruiting Coordinator, Liz Carosella at liz.carosella@highcloud.org

Global Social Media / Marketing Coordinator

Location: Global

Organization: High Cloud Foundation

Start date:

Sex: All are welcome

Skill(s): creativity, self-starter, clerical, tutoring, Writing, editing, Web page design

Area of Focus: Children and Youth, Community Building and Renewal, Disaster Relief , International Cooperation, Poverty and Hunger, Social Enterprise and Economic Development

End date:

Age: All ages above 18 years old

Language(s): English, Spanish, Portuguese (if possible)

Last updated:

Description:

The High Cloud Foundation, a 501c3 Non Profit/Non Governmental Organization, provides humanitarian assistance to schools and orphanages in Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, the Middle East, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, Tunisia, and India.

High Cloud conducts educational sessions with children, orphans and communities who live in extreme poverty and who suffer from conflicts or natural disasters.

These Humanitarian Missions focus on four major components:

- Cloud of Knowledge provides instruction in English, math and science
- Cloud of Nutrition encourages children to use their limited resources to make healthier eating choices
- Cloud of Environment teaches conservation, basic sanitation, and recycling methods
- Cloud of Sports emphasizes the benefits of an active lifestyle by encouraging development of natural athletic abilities

As a High Cloud Member, you will be given the opportunity to interact with global leaders and international organizations on a daily basis while providing support to the children and orphans High Cloud supports.

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate redesign and launching of High Cloud's social networks. Sites must be interactive, user-friendly, and dynamic and updated weekly
- Update High Cloud's social networks such as the Blog, Online Calendars, Web Site, Facebook Page, Facebook Cause, Wikipedia Article, among others
- Contribute to the development and publishing of the High Cloud E-newsletter
- Contribute to the development and publishing of letters to benefactors and potential donors as well as large corporations
- Expand High Cloud's social network by sharing High Cloud on popular social media sites such as Hi5, LinkedIn, among others
- Contribute to other marketing endeavors as needed

- Recognize and develop future children's' educational programs, relying on your individual creativity and personal responsibility to develop proposals and see ideas through to fruition
- Be an advocate for High Cloud projects and donor nations as well as provide support to High Cloud by using your creativity and social entrepreneurship to expand Humanitarian Programs, Missions and benefactors among other activities for the Foundation

Opportunities:

- Gain global experience while supporting an International Non-Governmental Organization
- Network with world leaders in eight different countries as well as High Clouders who currently serve as Executives of International Consulting Firms and Global Institutions such as the World Bank
- Become a Mentor and Role Model-for life for hundreds of children
- Experience local culture and travel to unique locations

Applicant Requisites:

- Strong written English skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Interest in the work of an NGO
- Commitment to the mission of helping to empower children and orphans to rise above their challenges
- Proficiency in basic computer programs
- A commitment to an interfaith, interracial, international, and intergenerational approach to humanitarian aid

High Cloud is a 501(c)3 Non-Profit that has the mission to help alleviate world poverty for the vulnerable among us - children and displaced mothers who are victims of violence, poverty or natural disasters throughout the world. We provide humanitarian assistance and support to orphanages, foundations and rural schools through educational programs, sports and additional extracurricular activities. High Cloud also provides the basic elements of life such as clothing, food, school supplies as well as financial support.

In addition to physical human needs, High Cloud is also dedicated to providing displaced children and families with a sense of belonging, self-esteem, empowerment and opportunity. High Cloud has ongoing humanitarian activities in: Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Peru, Kenya, Nigeria, Macedonia, The Middle East, among others and will be expanding to Tunisia and India next year. The opportunity to conduct philanthropic activities and work on projects with different cultures is simply priceless and is the most rewarding experience (<http://www.highcloud.org/>, <http://highcloudfoundation.blogspot.com/>).

The Interns will gain valuable knowledge on international affairs, global business with large corporations, as well as superb networking opportunities with our High Cloud members who include our High Cloud members who include Executives of International Consulting Firms and Diplomats.

Contact High Cloud's Recruiting Coordinator, Liz Carosella at liz.carosella@highcloud.org